

CIVILIZATION / TECHNICAL COMPETITION

- In collaboration with Civil Engineering Association (CEA) organised a Two-Day National Level Student Technical Fest CIVILIZATION with the theme “Integrated Sustainable development” during 13th -14th September 2019.
- Sri B N Mani, Project Engineer, National Institute of Rural Development (NIRD), Hyderabad has graced the occasion as chief guest and delivered a keynote lecture on “Sustainable Housing for All”.
- A total of 12 technical events such as paper presentation, poster presentation, model expo, project demonstration, bridge modelling and workshop on building information and modelling were organised over 2 days.
- A total of 122 no. of students have registered for various events spread over 2 days.

Sri B N Mani, Project Engineer, National Institute of Rural Development (NIRD), delivered a keynote lecture on “Sustainable Housing for All”

Dr. M Koti Reddy, Professor & Head , CED, Presenting the Memento to Sri B. N Mani

- Department of Civil Engineering has organized one-day national level workshop on “Revit Architecture & Building Information and Modelling” on 13th September 2019. Mr. S K Zaheeruddin, CEO Future Gen Technologies was the technical resource person for the workshop and gave hands-on practice sessions for the participants. The Aim of the workshop is to develop Quality Engineers in the Construction Industry.

Dr.M. Koti Reddy, Professor & Head, CED Presenting a Memento to Mr. S K Zaheeruddin