IETE-ISF CBIT is organizing an Invited Talk by Smt. Usha Paliath, on the theme “Innovation and start-up Ecosystem” commemorating IETE foundation Day, for the IIIrd Sem students of ECE, CSE, IT and EEE.

Innovation and the startup ecosystem are closely intertwined, playing vital roles in driving economic growth, technological advancement, and societal progress. Innovation is the process of creating new ideas, services, or methods that result in positive change. The startup ecosystem, on the other hand, refers to the interconnected network of entrepreneurs, investors, mentors, and support organizations that foster the growth and development of new businesses.

Smt. Usha Paliath, Head of the incubation Dept., WE hub. she has been a startup mentor for many students and helped a numerous startups grow profitably. She is specialized in Budgeting, Reporting, Financial Analysis, Business Intelligence. This talk would encourage students to raise start-ups in technical domains.
