This was Transcendent's first ever digital newsletter. Staying true to the year's theme of 'Resurgence', it was replete with exhilarating comeback stories and also included within was a little something en-compassing all brackets of interest which we aspired to pique every reader's heed with. The year that went by was we believe, a serendipitously divergent one for us at team Transcendent, for it impelled us to reinvent and break more barriers so as to quench the demands of the pandemic induced-new normal. Though the breakneck transition from offline to online wasn't a cakewalk, it was paramount in terms of the monumental strides we could make in terms of our reach via social media. The magazine contained department wise such as news, sports, business and entertainment, it also featured the best entries from get it write edition 3.

Overview of the Event: Kyuriosity, a quiz competition was conducted as a part of 11th edition of Literati during Shruthi-2021. Overview of the Event: The amount of uncertainty the pandemic has brought signified the importance of endurance and the need to understand, preserve and nurture one's mental health. Embarrassment. Shame. Ignorance and not knowing how to and whom to ask for help. We often forget that mental bruises need first aid just like any other injuries. From yoga techniques to combat stress, an overview on managing your mental health, a perspective on different mental illnesses, and how to seek help, this session was a step towards making mental healthcare more accessible. The session was led by Arjun Gupta, a psychologist in the making, working relentlessly to normalise dialogue around mental illnesses such as depression, and Richa, a certified Yoga trainer, and practitioner, enabled us to harness our mental energy through some exercises.
Outcome of the event	The participants got to interact with Arjun Gupta and Richa and they expressed their mental health issues.

ABOUT THE EVENT

One of the intelligence testing events conducted by our club-WPC i.e., SUM IT UP is a platform where the participants have to test their intelligence and make up a good summary of any book, movie or series they are fond of.

This indeed is how a person can get the outline of their favorite thing in a great way.

For example, the sum it up on a book 'A SHORT GUIDE TO A HAPPY LIFE' by Anna Quindlen would be in this way-

The only thing you have that nobody else has is control of your life. The hardest thing of all is to learn to love the journey, not the destination. Get a real life rather than frantically chasing the next level of success.
